The Delaware State Fire Marshal's office is investigating last evening's amusement ride mishap at a Wilmington, Delaware carnival.

The Mill Creek Fire Company responded to the St. John the Beloved Church at 905 Milltown Road around 9:30 pm for a report of a disabled amusement ride with riders onboard. Firefighters encountered several people on the "Zipper" amusement ride. Several mutual aid fire companies and specialty teams were dispatched to assist with the rescues. Two people were taken to the Christiana Hospital for medical evaluation of non-life-threatening injuries.

State fire marshal investigators are on the scene conducting the investigation into this incident. The amusement ride has been taken out of service and will be removed from the site once the on-scene analysis is completed.

Additional information to follow as investigation progresses.
